Special Instructions: While you may have registered online, please download, print, complete and bring the following forms to your first appointment. These forms contain required information and ask for your signature.

CLIENT INFORMATION ON OFFICE PRACTICES AND POLICIES

The information below is intended to inform you about office practices and policies. Because your relationship with your therapist is based on confidence and trust, it is important that you be fully informed of some of the key elements of that relationship. Though the following list may be daunting, please be assured I will be happy to discuss these issues in detail so that you may feel comfortable with them. This form also serves to document that these issues have been discussed. I will be happy to answer any questions you may have and provide a copy for you to keep.

I have an independent private practice, and while I share office space with other mental health practitioners, each clinician represents an independent private practice.

Emergencies: Messages can be left on my voice mail by calling 281-585-0000 ext. 1. Calls are returned between 8:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m., Monday-Friday. After hour calls are reserved for urgent situations ONLY. If you have an urgent situation and must speak with me immediately, please leave a message on my voice mail and state it is urgent. I will call you back as soon as possible. I recommend that you dial 911, go to your local emergency room or contact your primary care physician in life threatening emergencies.

Goals of Therapy: Goals of treatment will be developed in discussion between Lori Candrian and you. Therapy is a joint effort between the therapist and the client, the results of which cannot be guaranteed. Progress depends on many factors including motivation, effort, consistent attendance, work outside of therapy (assignments) and other life circumstances such as interactions with family, friends, and other associations. It is important to review the work toward meeting these goals and make revisions as needed.

Risk of Treatment: Medicines often have their side effects; in a similar manner there are risks associated with seeking psychological services. For example, as you begin treatment you may become more anxious or experience increased temporary family or relationship conflict. It is normal to feel somewhat reluctant to talk about personal problems with someone you have just met, but this feeling tends to decrease as you become more familiar with your therapist. Although most people report benefits from psychotherapy, a minority feel their conditions worsened as a result of treatment.

Length of Treatment: The length of treatment will be determined in discussion between Lori Candrian and you. Insurance benefits may impact length of treatment. You may withdraw from treatment at any time. If you elect to stop treatment, I will, if you wish, provide you with the names of other practitioners with whom you may want to continue treatment.

Appointment Times: Appointment times are limited. Each session is 45-50 minutes unless special arrangements are made. If you are unable to keep your appointment, please call at least 24 hours in advance. You are responsible for rescheduling missed or cancelled appointments. Missed Appointments: Appointment times are reserved for you. If appointments are not canceled 24 hours in advance, YOU will be charged a $50.00 No Show/Late Cancellation fee which is due prior to or at the time of your next appointment. If you miss two consecutive sessions without informing or contacting me, I will assume that you wish to terminate services. You may terminate services any time by notifying me.

Fees and Payment Information: My professional fee is $125.00 for initial interview, $100.00 for a 45-50 minute session, $60.00 for 30 minutes, $125.00 for 60 minutes if insurance allows. Different fee arrangements have been negotiated with some insurance companies. Payments for services or insurance co-payments/deductibles are discussed at your first session. Occasionally, co-pays/deductibles are not available until after the first billing and you are responsible for any difference. The following fees are paid by the client and cannot be billed to your insurance/EAP: $50.00 for No Show/Late Cancellation, $100.00 for Letter of Treatment Summary for Legal Purposes, $400.00 plus travel for Court Appearances plus $100.00 per hour over 3 hours, $20.00 plus $1.00 per page over 10 pages for Copy of Treatment Records (except for continuity of care), $25.00 charge for returned checks, $25.00 per 15 minutes for after hours, non-emergency phone consultation.

Payment may be by cash or check and is due at the time services are rendered. I reserve the right to seek collections for delinquent accounts. I will work with you in every way possible to avoid such an event.

Confidentiality: The information you provide to Lori Candrian and to those under her supervision is confidential and will generally be released to others only with your written consent. However, I am required by law to disclose confidential information even without your consent in certain circumstance. These circumstances include but are not limited to the following: If I consider you to be a danger to yourself or others; if you are a minor, elderly or have a disability and I believe you are a victim of abuse; if you report to me that a previous helping professional engaged in a sexual relationship with you; if you are involved in any suit or court proceeding affecting the parent/child relationship; if you file suit against the therapist for breach of duty and if court order or other legal proceeding or statue requires disclosure. If you chose to file insurance or work with a managed care company or EAP information regarding your treatment, diagnosis, and the specified issues for which you have come to treatment are available to the insurance company, managed care company or EAP. Health insurance companies often require that I diagnose your mental conditions and indicate you have an "illness" before they will agree to pay for services. In the event a diagnosis is required, I will inform you of the diagnosis I plan to render before I summit it to the health insurance company. Any diagnosis made may become a part of your permanent insurance records. Once the information is turned over to the insurance company, managed care company or EAP, I have no control over how the information may be used. You have the opportunity to discuss with me any questions you may have on the limits of confidentiality. Please also refer to the HIPAA Regulations.

Management of Records: In the unlikely event of this provider's death I do give permission for any and all records to be turned over to the care and responsibility of Samantha R. Candrian, daughter of Lori T. Candrian, MS, LPC. If this provider and her daughter were to die together, I give permission for any and all records to be turned over to colleague Stephanie K. DeWolfe, LCSW, PLLC immediately. These records will be kept according to the guidelines of The Texas State Board of Examiners.

PROFESSIONAL STATEMENT

I am pleased you have selected me as your counselor. This document is designed to inform you about my background and to ensure that you understand our professional relationship.

I am a licensed professional counselor in the state of Texas. I hold a Master of Science degree in Guidance and Counseling from Texas A&M University-Commerce. I primarily see individuals age 6 through adult with personal growth issues or mental health disorders I also provide couples and family counseling.

I have been a professional counselor since 1990. I accept clients in my practice who I believe have the capacity to resolve their own problems with my assistance or guidance. I believe that as people become more accepting of themselves, they are more capable of finding happiness and contentment in their lives. However, self-awareness and self-acceptance are goals that sometimes take a long time to achieve. Some clients need only a few counseling sessions to achieve these goals, while others may require more. As a client, you are in complete control and may end our counseling relationship at any point. I will be supportive of that decision and provide you names of other practitioners with whom you may want to continue treatment. If counseling is successful, you should feel that you are more able to face life's challenges in the future with less stress and difficulties.

Although our sessions may be very intimate psychologically, it is important for you to realize that we have a professional relationship rather than a social one. Our contact will be limited to sessions you will arrange with me. It would not be appropriate for you to invite me to socials gatherings or ask me to relate to you in any way other than in the professional context of our counseling sessions. Your needs will be best served if our relationship stays strictly professional and if our sessions concentrate exclusively on your issues or concerns. You will learn a great deal about me as we work together during our counseling experience. However, it is important for you to remember that you are experiencing me in my professional role.

I assure that my services will be rendered in a professional manner consistent with accepted ethical standards. If at any time for any reason you are dissatisfied with my services, please let me know. If I am not able to resolve your concerns, you may report your complaints to the Texas State Board of Professional Counselors in Texas at 1-800-942-5540.

If you have any questions, feel free to ask. Please sign and date the next page. You may request a copy for you to keep for your records.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES – BRIEF VERSION

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBLES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

My commitment to your privacy:

My practice is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your personal health information as part of providing professional care. I am also required by law to keep your information private. These laws are complicated, but I must give you this important information. This handout is a shorter version of the full, legally required NPP which you may request to review for more information. However, I can't cover all possible situations so if questions arise please talk to me about any questions or problems.

I will use the information about your health which I get from you or from others mainly to provide you with treatment, to arrange payment for my services, and for some other business activities which are called, in the law, health care operations. After you have read this NPP I will ask you to sign a Consent Form to let me use and share your information. If you do not consent and sign the form, I cannot treat you.

If I or you want to use or disclose (send, share, release) your information for any other purposes I will discuss this with you and ask you to sign an Authorization form to allow this.

Of course I will keep your health information private but there are some times when the laws require me to use or share it. For example:

- 1. When there is a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of another individual or the public. I will only share information with a person or organization that is able to help prevent or reduce the threat.
- 2. Some lawsuits and legal or court proceedings.
- 3. If a law enforcement official requires me to do so.
- 4. For Workers Compensation and similar benefit programs.

There are some other situations like these but which don't happen very often. They are described in the longer version of the NPP.

Your rights regarding your health information

- 1. You can ask me to communicate with you about your health and related issues in a particular way or at a certain place which is more private for you. For example, you can ask me to call you at home and not at work to schedule or cancel an appointment. I will try my best to do as you ask.
- 2. You have the right to ask me to limit what I tell people involved in your care or the payment for your care, such as family members and friends. While I don't have to agree to your request, if I do agree, I will keep our agreement except if it is against the law, or in an emergency, or when the information is necessary to treat you.

- 3. You have the right to look at the health information I have about you such as your medical and billing records. You can even get a copy of these records but I may charge you. Ask me to arrange how to see your records.
- 4. If you believe the information in your records is incorrect or missing important information, you can ask me to make some kind of changes (called amending) to your health information. You have to make this request in writing and send it to me. You must tell me the reasons you want to make the changes.
- 5. You have the right to a copy of this notice. If I change this NPP I will post the new version in the waiting area and you can always get a copy of the NPP from me.
- 6. You have the right to file a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. You can file a complaint with me or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. All complaints must be in writing. Filing a complaint will not change the health care I provide to you in any way.

If you have any questions regarding this notice or my health information privacy policies, please contact Lori T. Candrian (Privacy Officer) who can be reached by phone or mail at the above number and address.
